ABOUT THE CONDUCTOR

Brandon Williams is a DMA student in choral conducting at Michigan State University and a recipient of the prestigious University Enrichment Graduate Fellowship Award. As a graduate assistant, he assists with the MSU Men’s Glee Club, undergraduate conducting, and directs an undergraduate a cappella vocal ensemble. In addition to his duties on campus, Mr. Williams conducts the Ingham County Festival Chorale. Prior to Michigan State University, Mr. Williams taught middle and high school in the Ladue School District in St. Louis, MO. Through juried application, two of his Ladue ensembles received invitations to perform at the 2010 and 2013 Missouri Music Educator’s Association conventions. The Ladue Middle School Treble Chamber Singers were selected to be a featured ensemble on the GIA DVD titled “Creative Positioning of Singers”. Mr. Williams has also held positions with Maryville University, the St. Louis Children’s Choirs, and the St. Louis Symphony Orchestra. Mr. Williams appears frequently as a guest conductor, clinician, and adjudicator. He was awarded the 2009 MCDA Prelude Award for excellence in choral music and an Outstanding Teacher Award from the University of Missouri-Columbia Honors College. Mr. Williams received a Bachelor’s Degree from Western Illinois University and a Master’s Degree from the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign. He is a member of the National Association for Music Education and the American Choral Directors Association.

ABOUT THE ACCOMPANIST

Michael Frazier received a Bachelor’s Degree in Piano Performance from Cedarville University under the direction of Dr. John Mortensen. He also received a Master’s Degree in Piano Performance/Accompanying from Southern Illinois University Edwardsville under the direction of Dr. Linda Perry. Mr. Frazier is an accompanist and adjunct faculty member at Missouri Baptist University. He serves as accompanist for the St. Louis Children’s Choirs, the Main Street United Methodist Church in Alton, IL, and the Ladue School District. Mr. Frazier is a private piano instructor, and has served as musical director and accompanist for several theaters in the St. Louis metro area.

ABOUT THE CONDUCTOR

Philip developed a passion for singing early in life, and was an active member of the Crestview Middle and Marquette High School choral programs. He is the founder of the Marquette High School Gospel Choir, and was the president and director of the Saint Louis University Gospel Choir for five years. He continued vocal training at Saint Louis University under the direction of Dr. Jeral B. Becker and became a member of the Saint Louis University Mastersingers. He performed the role of Raphael in The Creation, King Melchior in Amahl and the Night Visitors, and held the lead role of Elijah in Elijah. He was a member of the chorus and understudy for King Balthazar in LyriCo Opera Company's 2004 production of Amahl and the Night Visitors. He was a member of the Saint Louis American Kantorei Choir. Philip received his BS/BA in Business Marketing and Music Vocal Performance from Saint Louis University in 2005 and Masters in Music Education at Webster University in 2010. He presently is working on his PhD in Music Education from the University of Missouri-Columbia, and is an active member of MMEA and ACDA. He has held teaching positions in the Ferguson-Florissant and Rockwood School Districts. In 2007, he received the position as Coordinator of Voice at COCA and is currently in charge of COCA's voice program, where he has also musically directed several productions. Other directorial credits include Marquette High School, McClure High School, The Children's Workshop Theatre, Spotlight Productions, and The Saint Louis Metropolitan Police Department Choir. Philip is thankful for the many musical opportunities he has been afforded and honored to work with such talented musicians.

ABOUT THE ACCOMPANIST

Khalid McGhee, a native of Saint Louis, began his piano studies at age 11 at Brittany Woods Middle School, with piano pedagogue, Dr. Curtis Duncan. At age 14, he was accepted into Orchestrating Diversity, an intensive music-training program for minority youth, where he studied piano and violin. McGhee has earned the highest rating, all four years of high school, at the Missouri All-State Solo and Ensemble Festival. He also was accepted into the Missouri All-State High School Honors Choir his senior year. McGhee has performed as a piano soloist all over the Saint Louis Area in nationally renowned venues including Powell Symphony Hall, The Sheldon Concert Hall, and The Fox Theatre. He is currently a sophomore piano performance major at the University of Columbia-Missouri School of Music. He studies under the tutelage of Dr. Paola Savvidou.

ABOUT THE CONDUCTOR

Ms. L. Michelle Howard joined the Lindbergh Schools Orchestra staff in 1997. Music and education have always been a strong presence in Michelle's life, as both of her parents are educators. Michelle graduated from Butler University with Honors in String Education in 1992 and completed her Master of Arts degree with emphasis in Music Theory and Orchestration at Webster University in December 2009. Michelle has been an Orchestra Teacher/Director for the past 22 years, spending the last 17 years with the Lindbergh School District. Currently, Michelle directs the Truman and Sperreng Middle School Orchestras and the following extracurricular ensembles: Elementary Honors Orchestra (5th grade strings), The Sperreng/Truman Fiddlers (a 80-100 member ensemble with full string compliment), The Colonial Fiddlers and The Advanced Fiddlers. Michelle is a member of the Metropolitan Orchestra of St. Louis and attends fiddle workshops/jams at the St. Louis Folk School. In addition to music related activities, Michelle spends time fishing in Northern Wisconsin and enjoys photography, cooking and drawing.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The St. Louis Suburban Music Educators Association would like to thank the following for their assistance in making this afternoon's performance a success: First and foremost, this would not have taken place without the wonderful generosity of Clayton School District, namely Clayton School for the use of their facilities for our rehearsals. Special thanks also go to the teachers who came to assist with tuning or sectionals at rehearsals. And finally, thank you to our conductor, Ms. L. Michelle Howard. Her work with the students has been wonderful! The SLSMEA Sixth Grade Orchestra Vice President is Annah Harting, Hazelwood School District.

ABOUT THE CONDUCTOR

Dr. James Richards is Professor of Music and Senior Associate Dean of the College of Fine Arts and Communication at the University of Missouri-St. Louis. He holds a Ph.D. from the Eastman School of Music of the University of Rochester and degrees in orchestral conducting and music theory and the Performer's Certificate in Violin from the University of Texas at Austin. He studied orchestral and opera conducting with Walter Ducloux, Paul Vermel, and Gustav Meier, music theory and composition with Joseph Schwantner, Robert Gaudin, Kent Kennan, and Karl Korte, and was selected to participate in the Conductor's Program of the Aspen Music Festival. Dr. Richards is conductor and music director of the Gateway Festival Orchestra as well as of the Saint Louis Chamber Orchestra and the University of Missouri-St. Louis Orchestra. He also was conductor of the Kirkwood Symphony Orchestra for nineteen seasons. He has appeared frequently as a guest conductor on the Saint Louis Symphony Discovery Series, and in 2009, conducted the New York premiere of the music theatre work, Booth!, by Harbach, Coker, and Yordy, at the Skirball Center for the Performing Arts. In February, 2013, Dr. Richards conducted the stunningly choreographed performances of Orff's Carmina Burana with the Nashville Ballet, MADCO, St. Louis Bach Society, St. Louis Children's Choirs, and UMSL student and faculty musicians. As a violinist, Dr. Richards performs regularly with the Bach Society of Saint Louis and the Dance St. Louis Orchestra and also has played with the Saint Louis Symphony, Illinois Symphony, Memphis Symphony, Oklahoma City Symphony, and Austin Symphony. For ten years, he was first violinist in the Landolfi String Quartet. Dr. Richards is past-President of the Missouri Association of Departments and Schools of Music (MADSM). He has served the American String Teachers Association (ASTA) at the state and national levels in a variety of capacities, chaired the Merle J. Isaac International Composition Contest and was President of the Missouri Chapter of ASTA. Dr. Richards is a recipient of the St. Louis Suburban Music Educator's Association's Merit Award "in recognition of significant contributions for the advancement of music education," the MoASTA Artist/Teacher of the Year Award, and the 2009 Faculty Excellence Award from the UMSL College of Fine Arts and Communication.

PROGRAM

Sinfonia No. 9 in C Major, mvt. 1..... Felix Mendelssohn-Bartholdy/Arr. by Kirk Moss
Variations on a Theme by Girolamo Frescobaldi Alexandre Tansman
Finale from Serenade, Op. 48 Pyotr Il'yich Tchaikovsky

ABOUT THE CONDUCTOR

Kirk D. Moss, Ph.D., holds an appointment as an Associate Professor of Music and Chair of the Music Education Department at the Lawrence University (WI) Conservatory of Music. He is a past national president of the American String Teachers Association, thrice chaired the ASTA National Orchestra Festival, and served on ASTA's Executive Board. Moss has appeared as a guest conductor, clinician, or adjudicator in more than thirty states. The University of Florida School of Music awarded him an Alumni Outstanding Achievement Award, and he has received four ASTA National Citation for Leadership & Merit awards. With twelve years of experience teaching elementary, middle, and high school orchestras, groups under his direction have earned distinction at state, national, and international events. One of his former high schools honors him by annually awarding a college string scholarship in his name. He has coauthored two method books for Alfred Music: Sound Innovations—Sound Development for Intermediate String Orchestra and Sound Development for Advanced String Orchestra.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Thank you to Mr. Joe Dobrinic, Principal of Pattonville High School, and the staff for the use of their building facilities, in order to hold this event. ABOUT THE CONDUCTOR

Jim Widner is the former bassist with the Stan Kenton Orchestra and has performed with Clark Terry, Buddy DeFranco, Mulgrew Miller, Louis Bellson, Randy Brecker, Bill Watrous, Marilyn Maye, and an appearance before former President Bill Clinton. He was a faculty member of the Kenton camps for 10 years and helped Stan organize and expand his camps from California to other locations across the United States. A graduate of the University of Missouri, Jim also holds a Master's Degree from Memphis State University and has done post graduate work at the University of North Texas. In 1999 students at the University of Missouri renamed the music wing of the Fine Arts Residential College "Widner House," in honor of him. "The Jim Widner Big Band," whose recordings have received critical acclaim, also hosts a number of jazz camps each summer. Jim has performed at the world famous Lionel Hampton and Montreaux Jazz Festivals and serves as guest conductor for numerous All-State Jazz Bands. Jim is currently Artist in Residence/Coordinator of Jazz Studies at the University of Missouri, St. Louis. He also maintains an ambitious clinic and festival schedule at high schools and colleges throughout the United States. This includes a series of summer jazz camps, spearheaded by members of the Jim Widner Big Band, which records with Chase Music Group. Their critically acclaimed CD's include "Yesterdays and Today," "Body and Soul," and "Live," the Jim Widner Big Band Rides Again," and the band's newest CD, "Flying High."

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The St. Louis Suburban Music Educators Association would like to thank the following: Chris Becker, John Chruma, Paul Holzen, Terry Martinez, Stan Minor, Jim Schneeberg, and Brian Wyss for their assistance with audition adjudication and sectional rehearsals. The administrators and staff at Parkway Northeast Middle School for the use of their building and equipment for rehearsals. Adam Hall and the staff at Holman Middle School for hosting auditions.

The SLSMEA Middle School Jazz Band Vice President is Mike Steep, Parkway School District.

ABOUT THE CONDUCTOR

John P. LaCognata was appointed Director of Bands/Assistant Professor of Music at the University of North Carolina Wilmington in 2010. At UNCW, his responsibilities include conducting the Wind Symphony, Chamber Winds, and Pep Band; teaching applied trumpet, instrumental techniques, and conducting; directing the UNCW Honor Band Festival and UNCW Summer Honor Band Workshop, and administering the entire band program. In addition to his work at UNCW, he conducts the Wilmington New Horizons Concert Band in association with the Osher Lifelong Learning Institute (OLLI) and the UNCW Division of Public Service and Continuing Studies. Dr. LaCognata received his Bachelor of Science in Music Education from the University of Illinois (1986), Master of Music in Trumpet Performance from Auburn University (1989) and PhD in Music Education with an emphasis in Wind Conducting from the University of Florida (2010) where he was awarded a Doctoral Teaching Fellowship. Prior to his appointment at UNCW, Dr. LaCognata has held a variety of teaching positions throughout his twenty-seven year career as a music educator. At the collegiate level, he served on the faculties of Southeastern Oklahoma State University, Louisiana State University, and Iowa State University. At the secondary level, he held positions at Hillcrest High School (Country Club Hills, Illinois), Tavares High School (Tavares, Florida), Cypress Creek High School (Orlando, Florida), and Winter Park High School (Winter Park, Florida). Concert bands under Dr. LaCognata's direction have performed at the Bands of America National Concert Band Festival in Indianapolis, Indiana, the Florida Music Educators' Association Conference in Tampa, Florida, and most notably, the 60th Anniversary of the Midwest Clinic in Chicago, Illinois in 2006. Marching bands under his leadership have made appearances at the Autozone Liberty Bowl in Memphis, Tennessee, the Blue Cross Blue Shield Fiesta Bowl National Band Championship in Phoenix, Arizona, and the Sylvania Alamo Bowl in San Antonio, Texas. Dr. LaCognata is an active adjudicator, clinician and performer. He has served as a guest conductor for bands and honor bands throughout the United States. He is a member of the UNCW Faculty Brass Quintet as well as the Cape Fear Brass. His professional affiliations include the College Band Directors National Association, the National Association for Music Education, the International Trumpet Guild, North Carolina Music Educators Association, and the North Carolina Bandmasters Association.
