ABOUT THE ACCOMPANIST

Nathan Coleman chose piano lessons over a new kitty when he was six years old; he got the kitty later anyway. His first paying gig was at age sixteen that he performed with a broken left wrist. While studying piano with Daniel Schene at Webster University, Nathan was awarded multiple scholarships, including the prestigious Buder Foundation Scholarship, the Sister Alice Eugene Tighe Music Scholarship, and the Peggy Fossett Endowed Scholarship. He was twice a selected performer at the Piano Texas Academy on the TCU campus in Ft. Worth. Nathan has recently spent time in Spain at the Archivo General de Indias researching the trans-Atlantic export of early keyboard instruments from Europe to the New World. After graduating with honors from Webster University, he is now pursuing his graduate degree and performing with chamber groups across the region. Nathan is an active member of the Saint Louis Classical Underground, and, in 2014, he and violinist Neil Zundel formed the piano/violin ensemble Duo Laberlinthe and continue to perform regularly.
