About the Conductor

Daniel Mieloch began his musical journey with Suzuki violin lessons in his hometown of Philadelphia. He earned Bachelor's degrees in Violin Performance and Music Education from Lebanon Valley College, then moved to the Midwest to attend Southern Illinois University Edwardsville to earn his Master's degree in Orchestral Conducting with Dr. Michael Mishra. Mr. Mieloch also had the distinct privilege of studying with Maestro Otto Werner-Müller and conducting the Filharmónie Bohuslav Martinů in Zlín, Czech Republic, during an intensive workshop focusing on the works of Igor Stravinsky and Richard Strauss.

Closer to home, Mr. Mieloch has worked with the Webster Community Music School as conductor for the fifth St. Looney Chamber Blitz and first Concerto Competition Festival, as well as a guest coach for chamber music ensembles. In addition to traditional orchestra experiences, he has collaborated with DanceSTL, conducting their revival of the ballet Heyoka at the Touhill Performing Arts Center. Returning to his alma mater and Suzuki roots, he has worked with the SIUE Suzuki program for thirteen years, holding the director post of the Edwardsville Youth Orchestra and Advanced Chamber Ensemble. In 2019, he accepted the conductor position of the Cadenza Orchestra with the St. Charles County Youth Orchestras, led the orchestra through the pandemic, and is now in his third season.

He lives in O'Fallon, Missouri, and teaches the orchestras at Fort Zumwalt West High School, where his ensembles consistently earn top ratings at state competitions and have performed in New York City, Chicago, Nashville, New Orleans, Kansas City, and Branson. In his spare time, he enjoys composing (both in the classical and pop genres), traveling (home to PA, visiting national parks, and any other fun locations), and playing guitar and bass with friends.

About the Conductor

This is Mr. Mazar's 9th year at Rockwood Summit and 16th year in education. Over the course of Mr. Mazar's career his groups have achieved the highest honors and awards at State and National competitions/festivals. His groups have performed multiple times at the Missouri Music Educators Association Conference (2018 and 2022). In addition, Mr. Mazar has served as the principal cellist of Town and Country Symphony, a member of the St. Louis Philharmonic, and is a freelance musician for weddings and events. When Mr. Mazar is not yelling encouragingly at his 2nd violins and violas to play higher C#'s on the G string, he enjoys spending time with his wife (Julie) and 2 kids (Jack 10 and Eli 7), cooking, playing/coaching hockey, and trying to get his golf score under 100.

About the Conductor

Gold Prize Winner in the 2022 World Classical Music Awards and the 2nd Prize Winner of the 2019 Mozart & Tchaikovsky International Conducting Competition, Thomas Taylor Dickey has been reviewed by critics as a "dynamic and exciting conductor" whose conducting is "imbued with aplomb, energy, and pathos." Thomas currently serves as the Director of Orchestral Studies at Oklahoma State University, where he conducts the OSU Symphony Orchestra and guides all aspects of the orchestra and graduate orchestral conducting programs. He is also the Music Director & Conductor of the OSU Youth & Community Orchestras. Prior to his appointments in Oklahoma, he was the Director of Orchestral Activities at the University of Wisconsin-Platteville and Music Director & Conductor of the Dubuque Symphony Youth Orchestra (IA).

Thomas has conducted many professional orchestras throughout North America, Europe, and Asia, including the Bucharest Symphony and Bacau Philharmonic Orchestras in Romania; Danube Symphony Orchestra in Hungary; Belgrade Chamber Orchestra in Serbia; Lyatoshinsky Symphony Orchestra in Ukraine; Shenyang Symphony in China; the North Czech and Moravian Philharmonic Orchestras in the Czech Republic; Atlantic Coast Orchestra in Portugal; London Classical Soloists in England; and the Winnipeg Symphony Orchestra in Canada, in addition to the Bakersfield, Macon, Missouri, Norwalk, Rapides, Springfield, and Tulsa symphonies; the Saratoga Orchestra of Whidbey Island; the Smoky Mountain International Chamber Orchestra; Naples Philharmonic; Rose City Chamber Orchestra; and the Chicago Reading Orchestra. He has also worked with numerous all-state, honors, and university orchestras in Arkansas, Colorado, Connecticut, Florida, Georgia, Idaho, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kansas, Louisiana, Michigan, Missouri, Nebraska, New Hampshire, New Jersey, New York, North Dakota, Ohio, Oklahoma, Oregon, Pennsylvania, South Carolina, South Dakota, Tennessee, Texas, Virginia, Washington, Wisconsin, and Wyoming.

Thomas holds degrees from Eastern Illinois University, LSU, and the University of Georgia. He has worked with conductors such as Jin Wang, Jorma Panula, Carl Topilow, Christopher Zimmerman, Daniel Lewis, Gustav Meier, and Diane Wittry, and further studied conducting in numerous workshops and masterclasses at the Prague Academy of Performing Arts, Cleveland Institute of Music, and Cincinnati Conservatory of Music, among others.

About the Conductor

Dr. Joel Vanderheyden is a versatile saxophonist, composer, and educator with tremendous passion for the unifying power of music. As a performer, he draws upon his study of jazz (M.M. with Chris Vadala) and classical saxophone (D.M.A. with Kenneth Tse), immersing himself in a variety of musical situations, ranging from the St. Louis Symphony Orchestra to the cinematic electro-jazz group, Koplant No. He is also a regular member of the Jazz St. Louis Big Band, the live-looping trio Vehachi, and the Missouri Saxophone Quartet, and has performed on stages in the Netherlands, France, Switzerland, Scotland, Croatia, and across the United States, spanning large festivals, intimate jazz clubs, rock venues, live radio performances, and some of the world's finest concert halls. Vanderheyden is the recipient of a grant from the Iowa Arts Council and the National Endowment for the Arts, and his debut album of original compositions, Complete Life, was selected as one of the top albums of 2009 by KCCK Jazz 88.3FM. He has both performed with and written music for Strings of Arda, a chamber group from the St. Louis Symphony, and was named a quarterfinalist for the 2018 GRAMMY Music Educator Award. Currently, Dr. Vanderheyden serves as Professor of Music and Director of Jazz at Jefferson College in Hillsboro, MO, and teaches Applied Saxophone at Washington University. He maintains an active schedule working with high school and college students across the country, and is a performing artist/clinician for D'Addario Woodwinds and Selmer Paris Saxophones.

About the Conductor

A world-class musician, composer, arranger and educator, Diego Rivera has entertained audiences for over 20 years. Rivera is known for his muscular tone and unique blend of straight-ahead jazz fused with music inspired by his Latino background and heritage. He currently serves as the Director of Jazz Studies at the Butler School of Music, University of Texas at Austin.

Rivera was born in Ann Arbor, MI and raised 'just up the road' in East Lansing, MI. Born into a Mexican-American family, his Chicano heritage has always been important to him and shaped his creative endeavors. His parents named him after the famed muralist, Diego Rivera. A trip to the Detroit Institute of Arts at a young age inspired him to make his own mark with the Saxophone rather than the brush. He attended Michigan State University where he studied with Andrew Speight, Branford Marsalis, Ron Blake and Rodney Whitaker.

In 1999, he began his professional and touring career with the Jimmy Dorsey Orchestra on their Big Band '99 tour. Since that maiden voyage, he has performed concerts at the most prestigious venues and festivals across the United States, Canada, Europe and Asia. In addition to touring with his own ensemble, Rivera has also toured both nationally and internationally with GRAMMY-Award winning vocalist, Kurt Elling, JUNO-Award winning Canadian Jazz Vocalist, Sophie Milman and The Rodney Whitaker Quintet. He is a member of the The Ulysses Owens Jr. Big Band (New York, NY), the Jazz @ Dr. Phillips Center Orchestra (Orlando, FL) and the Gathering Orchestra (Detroit, MI). He has also performed with artists: The Jazz @ Lincoln Center Orchestra w/ Wynton Marsalis, Ellis Marsalis, Christian McBride, Wycliffe Gordon, PRISM Saxophone Quartet, the Gerald Wilson Big Band and the Lincoln Center Afro-Latin Jazz Orchestra.

Rivera has released 5 critically-acclaimed albums as a leader and has several other credits to his name as a recording artist, composer and arranger. He is currently a Posi-Tone recording artist, a New York/Los Angeles based record label. Rivera's latest project, Mestizo was released in February of 2022 and received 4-stars in DownBeat Magazine. Since hitting the radio waves, Mestizo climbed to #3 on the JazzWeek Radio charts which tracks national radio play for all current Jazz recordings. His previous projects Indigenous, Connections, The Contender (D- Clef Records 2013) and Hercules (Rivera Records) all received national critical acclaim reaching the Top 10 on the JazzWeek Radio Charts. He has also appeared on several recordings as a sideman on the Posi-Tone, Mack Avenue and Detroit Music Factory Record Labels.

An avid composer and arranger, Rivera has written works for various recordings, projects and artists most notably for Jazz at Lincoln Center's "Motor City Jazz" concert, a tribute to the music and musicians of Detroit. His arranging work can be heard on recordings by: Carl Allen-Rodney Whitaker, Get Ready (2007) and Work To Do (2008); Ulysses Owens Jr., Onward & Upward (2014); The New Century Quintet, The Time Is Now (2014); Michael Dease, Decisions (2015)/Bonafied (2018) and most recently on the Ulysses Owens Jr. Big Band debut recording, Soul Conversations (2021).

A passionate educator Rivera has presented masterclasses at schools and universities both in the United States and abroad. In 2022, Rivera accepted a position to become the next Director of Jazz Studies at the University of Texas at Austin where he will also serve as an Associate Professor of Jazz Saxophone. He is currently a Vandoren Performing Artist. In 2019 he was awarded the Dortha J. and John D. Withrow Teaching Award, Michigan State University's highest honor for excellence in teaching and scholarly achievement at the College of Music. Ensembles and students under his direction have won several awards and recognitions at the Jazz @ Lincoln Center Jack Rudin Jazz Championship, The Notre Dame Jazz Festival and The Elmhurst Jazz Festival. Several of Professor Rivera's former students enjoy careers as professional musicians performing with artists such as: Wynton Marsalis and the Jazz @ Lincoln Center, The Christian McBride Big Band, The Birdland Big Band, The Count Basie Orchestra, The DIVA Jazz Orchestra and the multi-GRAMMY Award winning group, Snarky Puppy.

Acknowledgements

Thank you to the Administration, Faculty and Staff of Ladue Horton-Watkins HS—especially Band Directors Aaron Lehde, Jason Harris, Erin Elstner, Lucas Alberts and Ladue HS Principal Brad Griffith—for the use of their campus facilities in order to host this year’s auditions. Thank you to the Administration, Faculty and Staff of Kirkwood HS—especially Rebecca Friesen, Matthew Banks, Kaela Barnett, Chris Bartz, Eric Chrostoski, Jeff Panhorst and Alison Smith and Kirkwood HS Principal Dr. Michael Havener—for the use of their campus facilities in order to host this year’s rehearsals and performances.

Thank you to the music educators and music education advocates who have worked very hard to support music education in our region throughout their lives and careers. Among the most important on a long list of "things to do" has been to find ways to encourage and assist students to pursue excellence in music and life. In true music teacher fashion, you continue to do amazing things with your students--especially with the collection of students that make up this year's SLSMEA Honor Band and Jazz Band. Thank you for continuing to be great role models for students to follow.

Thank you to my colleagues on the SLSMEA Executive Board. You are a student-centered group of professional educators that works very hard to facilitate smoothly-run, high-quality experiences for everyone involved. I am so proud to serve on the board and be part of the process with you. Congratulations on another great year!

Additional appreciation is extended to those who assisted throughout the process: Brad Balog, Tony Barbata, Zach Clark, Rebecca Friesen, Rick Haydon, Aaron Lehde, Laura Livesay, Mark Maher, Jeff Melsha, Keith Moyer, James Waechter, Anna White and Bennett Wood.

About the Conductor

Casey VanBiber is an assistant band director in the Grain Valley School District, serving as a brass specialist with the Marching Eagles, and teaching band classes at South Middle School and North Middle School.

Mr. VanBiber is a Blue Springs native, growing up in the Blue Springs School District and graduating from Blue Springs High School in 2003. After high school, Mr. VanBiber attended Missouri State University, where he earned his bachelor's degree in Music Education. While at Missouri State University, Mr. VanBiber was principal euphonium in the wind ensemble, a member of the jazz band, a drum major with the Missouri State Pride Marching Band, and was a marching member in the euphonium section with the Phantom Regiment Drum and Bugle Corps.

Mr. VanBiber has 14 years of teaching experience, serving as an assistant director at Blue Springs South High School, director of bands at Moreland Ridge Middle School, and Delta Woods Middle School.

Outside of teaching, Mr. VanBiber enjoys spending time with his wife, Angela, and his two daughters, Charlotte and Amelie.

About the Conductor

Dr. Courtney Snyder is Associate Director of Bands and Associate Professor of Conducting at the University of Michigan, where she conducts the University Concert Band and teaches conducting. Additionally she serves as Music Director of the Michigan Youth Symphonic Band. Under her artistic leadership, the University Concert Band was invited to perform at the College Band Directors Association North-Central Division Conference.

Previously, Snyder served as the Assistant Director of Bands and Director of Athletic Bands at the University of Nebraska-Omaha where she conducted the "Maverick" Marching Band, conducted the Concert Band, served as Associate Conductor of the Symphonic Wind Ensemble, and taught courses in conducting, music education, and brass methods. While in Omaha, Snyder also served as Music Director for the Nebraska Wind Symphony, which, under her direction, was invited to perform at the Nebraska State Bandmasters Association annual conference. Prior to teaching at the collegiate level, Snyder taught high school and middle school band and orchestra in the Michigan public schools.

Dr. Snyder is an active guest conductor and clinician, conducting and teaching across the country, in Canada and Europe. She has presented at national and international conferences including the Midwest Clinic, World Association of Symphonic Band Ensembles, College Band Directors National Association, College Music Society, and Women Band Directors International. Her current projects include improvisation in the large concert ensemble, conducting movement kinesiology, promoting equity through programming and commissioning works by women and BIPOC composers, and building mentorship and community for female band directors. She is Immediate Past President of Women Band Directors International, serves on the editorial board for The Woman Conductor journal, and is a Conn-Selmer clinician.

Snyder is published in Music Educators Journal, The Instrumentalist, several volumes of Teaching Music Through Performance in Band, School Band & Orchestra Magazine, The Woman Conductor, and Association of Concert Bands Journal. Her chapter "Trailblazers: Five Pioneering Female Band Directors Recount Their Journeys Over the Last 50 Years" in the book The Horizon Leans Forward...Stories of Courage, Strength, and Triumph of Underrepresented Communities in the Wind Band Field was published in December 2020. She received Tau Beta Sigma's Paula Crider Award, National Band Association's Citation of Merit, and earned 2nd Place of the 2018 American Prize in Conducting, Band/Wind Ensemble Division Competition.

Dr. Snyder is a graduate of the University of Michigan, Baylor University, and Indiana University of Pennsylvania. She is a member of College Band Directors National Association, World Association of Symphonic Bands and Ensembles, Women Band Directors International, National Band Association, National Association for Music Education, College Music Society, Kappa Kappa Psi, Tau Beta Sigma, and Pi Kappa Lambda.

About the Conductor

Claire Minnis is an educator, conductor, and performer building purposeful musical communities celebrating all skill and experience levels. Claire inspires professional and novice singers alike to musical excellence through unified purpose, innovative programming, and community partnerships. Claire is the Director of Choirs at The Noble Academy, a top-performing charter high school in Chicago, IL as well as Artistic Director of Justice Choir Chicago and Co-Artistic Director of the nonprofit organization Chicago Artists for Action.

Claire has performed with the St. Louis Symphony Chorus, St. Louis Chamber Singers, common pulse; directed CHARIS: the St. Louis Women's Chorus, Kirkwood Children's Chorale, various choirs throughout the Parkway School District; and founded Justice Choirs of Grand Rapids and Chicago since graduating from Millikin University with her Bachelor of Music degree in Music Education. She has earned her M.S. in Nonprofit Administration in 2019, and she is excited to be back home in St. Louis to direct this year's SLSMEA Treble Choir! Claire is also an avid gardener and hiker, and loves to spend time in or around the Great Lakes with her husband, Jared, and their very good dog, Samson.

About the Accompanist

Emily was singing before she could talk and playing the piano as soon as she could sit on the bench. She began teaching piano lessons in her mother's music studio when she was 13 years old, and has had the opportunity to accompany for many schools, churches, and ensembles throughout her professional life. Emily graduated summa cum laude with a degree in Music Education from the University of Missouri where she studied voice, piano, and french horn. She has since taught choir and piano for all ages working for the St. Louis Children's Choirs, Parkway North High School, Webster University, and Mount Zion United Methodist Church. Emily currently serves as Director of Children's Music and Drama at Manchester United Methodist Church and gives piano lessons at Sharon Kuhn Music Studio. She believes in the uniting force of the performing arts and it is her goal to share her love of music with everyone she serves. Emily lives in the Creve Coeur area with her husband, three daughters, and their cat, Bella.

About the Conductor

Jason Martin is the choir director at Fort Zumwalt South high school, the director of the St. Peters Choral Society, the Community Choir Repertoire and Resources for the Missouri Choral Directors Association, and Choral Vice President for the Missouri Music Educators Association. He also serves as the Secondary Performing Arts Curriculum Coordinator for the Fort Zumwalt School District. Jason holds certification in K-12 Choral/Vocal Music Education and Secondary School Administration. His past appointments include related positions at Sperreng Middle School in the Lindbergh School District, Florissant Valley Christian Church, Church of the Shepherd United Methodist, and the Recruits Chorus, a youth chorus under the umbrella of the Ambassadors of Harmony. Jason was selected as the recipient of the Missouri Choral Directors Association Prelude Award in 2006, South High's Teacher of the Year in 2010, and twice as the Outstanding Director of the Year for the St. Louis Metro District. In January of 2021, the Metro District recognized him as the Outstanding Educator of the Year. Jason is an active presenter, adjudicator, and clinician for Missouri's choral community. When he's not directing music, he loves supporting the growth of his family while forever chasing his beautiful and forgiving wife's "honey do" list.

About the Accompanist

Adam Rodgers is a pianist, educator, performer, and choral conductor. His piano experience includes regular engagements accompanying choirs, musicals, vocal soloists, and instrumental soloists. He received a Bachelor of Music Education from Illinois State University in 2012, and a Master's degree in Music Education from Eastern Illinois University in 2020. Adam studied piano under Jane Hopkins, Gellert Modos, and Dr. Tuyen Tonnu. He frequently performs with ensembles around the St. Louis area, including the Meramec Symphonic Band, and the Alton Municipal Band, where he is Chairman of the Board. In addition to his piano experience, he serves as a choral music director in the Parkway School District.

Acknowledgements

SLSMEA would like to thank the Ritenour School District, Ritenour High School, principal Dr. Jana Haywood, Theatre Manager Timothy Daly, and the performing arts department for the use of the venue. Also, thank you to Brad Balog, James Waechter, and SHHH Productions for their help with the organization of this event. Teachers: Thank you for devoting extra time and energy to prepare your students for this honors festival. Parents: Thank you for providing transportation and being supportive of your children and local school music programs. The students, teachers, and parents would like to thank Claire Minnis and Emily Pikaard for a wonderful day of artistic singing and an overall extraordinary musical experience.

The SLSMEA Middle School Vice Presidents are Karen Kaibel and Graeme Allen, Parkway School District
